Title	Autologous Transplantation for Philadelphia Chromosome-positive Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia Achieves Outcomes Similar to Allogeneic Transplantation - Results of CALGB Study 10001 (Alliance)
First author	M. Wetzler

According to the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE)

(http://www.icmje.org/ethical_1author.html):

“Authorship credit should be based on: 1) substantial contributions to conception and design, acquisition of data, or analysis and interpretation of data; 2) drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and 3) final approval of the version to be published. Authors should meet conditions 1, 2 and 3. Acquisition of funding, collection of data, or general supervision of the research group alone does not constitute authorship”.

The responsible author(s) of this manuscript confirm(s) that all persons designated as authors qualify for authorship, and that each author has participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for appropriate portions of the content.

Specific contributions of each author are listed on page 2 of this document.

Author contributions (maximum 1 page):

Please describe the contributions of each author, indicating who was responsible for each part of the study and the preparation of the manuscript (collection of data, experiments, data analysis, generation of figures, collection of images, interpretation of data, preparation of the text, etc.)

M. Wetzler was the Principal Investigator and contributed patients; D. Watson and F. Mulkey performed the statistical analyses; W. Stock oversaw the molecular analyses, G. Koval performed the molecular analyses; E. Hoke generated the database; J. McCarty, W. Blum and B. Powell contributed patients; G. Marcucci oversaw the correlative sciences; C. Bloomfield oversaw the karyotype analyses; C. Linker participated in the design of the trial and oversaw the conduct of the transplantation; R. Larson designed and oversaw the conduct of the trial.

All authors approved the final version of the manuscript.
