Title	The Granulocyte colony-stimulating factor produces long-term changes on gene and miRNA expression profiles in CD34+ cells from healthy donors
First author	Alicia Báez

According to the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE)

(http://www.icmje.org/ethical_1author.html):

“Authorship credit should be based on: 1) substantial contributions to conception and design, acquisition of data, or analysis and interpretation of data; 2) drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and 3) final approval of the version to be published. Authors should meet conditions 1, 2 and 3. Acquisition of funding, collection of data, or general supervision of the research group alone does not constitute authorship”.

The responsible author(s) of this manuscript confirm(s) that all persons designated as authors qualify for authorship, and that each author has participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for appropriate portions of the content.

Specific contributions of each author are listed on page 2 of this document.

Author contributions (maximum 1 page):

Please describe the contributions of each author, indicating who was responsible for each part of the study and the preparation of the manuscript (collection of data, experiments, data analysis, generation of figures, collection of images, interpretation of data, preparation of the text, etc.)

-Alicia Báez processed all samples, performed gene expression microarrays, miRNAs arrays, analyzed data and wrote the manuscript.

-Beatriz Martín-Antonio designed the research project.

-José I. Piruat analyzed data, performed all statistical analyses and generated all figures.

-Concepción Prats analyzed all samples by flow cytometry

-Isabel Álvarez-Laderas analyzed data.

-M. Victoria Barbado critically reviewed the manuscript.

-Magdalena Carmona collected samples from donors.

-Álvaro Urbano-Ispizúa provided funding, designed the research project and critically reviewed the manuscript.

-Jose Antonio Pérez-Simón critically reviewed the research project and the manuscript.
