Title	Transcriptome analysis reveals molecular profiles associated with evolving steps of monoclonal gammopathies
First author	Lucía López Corral

According to the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE)

(http://www.icmje.org/ethical_1author.html):

“Authorship credit should be based on: 1) substantial contributions to conception and design, acquisition of data, or analysis and interpretation of data; 2) drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and 3) final approval of the version to be published. Authors should meet conditions 1, 2 and 3. Acquisition of funding, collection of data, or general supervision of the research group alone does not constitute authorship”.

The responsible author of this manuscript confirms that all persons designated as authors qualify for authorship, and that each author has participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for appropriate portions of the content.

Author contributions Please describe the contributions of each author, indicating who was responsible for each part of the study and the preparation of the manuscript (collection of data, experiments, data analysis, generation of figures, interpretation of data, preparation of the text, etc.) : L.L.C. and N.C.G. were responsible for the design of the study, supervised all genomic analysis and prepared the initial version of the paper. E.F. carried out the microarray hybridization. L.A.C and F.S.B accomplished the bioinformatic analysis. M.E.S. performed the qRT-PCR analysis. J.M.H.R., J.J.L, J.B., A.O., M.L.M., J.H and A.I.T. are clinicians who contributed to sample collection. R.G.S. participated in the design of the study and supervised the statistical analysis. M.V.M, and J.F.S.M gave the final approval of the version to be published.
